Dear Student,

The Inter-Tribal Council of Louisiana would like to extend an invitation to you to participate in our Career Pathway Program. This program will benefit those looking to continue their education by pursuing one of the following education options from a state accredited school upon high school graduation:

- Associates Degree (60-72 hours)
- Technical Diploma (45-60 hours)
- Technical Studies (21-33 hours)
- Technical Competency Area Certificate (1-12 hours)

What are the requirements to participate?

To be eligible to receive assistance as part of the program the student must:

- Be a registered tribal member of Coushatta, Chitimacha, Jena Band of Choctaw, Tunica-Biloxi, United Houma Nation or a Federally Recognized Tribe
- Fit the description of unemployed, underemployed, or economically disadvantaged
- Be able to provide proof of enrollment in a state accredited college/technical school
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress in all courses
- Apply for FAFSA to the college/technical school that is chosen
- Be willing to provide academic information to ITCLA to maintain an updated file throughout their Career Pathway Plan
- Be a resident of the State of Louisiana
- Be in pursuit of a career associated with today's in-demand jobs

What are the benefits of this program?

Some of the benefits of the program are to prepare Native American students for employment, career advancement, and lifelong learning skills to achieve the goals set forth in their Career Pathway Plan.
