

In light of remote instruction as a way to mitigate the potential spread of COVID-19, Disability Services will be conducting all work remotely. Accommodations still apply for remote instruction. Students will continue to have access to reasonable accommodations through remote delivery of courses. If you are registered with Disability Services on campus, please contact ADA coordinator, Jacinta Massey by email or phone with questions and concerns. The Office of Disability Services is committed to responding quickly to all inquiries and requests.

FAQs

---

The physical office of Disability Services is closed. However, services will be provided remotely. All accommodations still apply for remote instructions.

In order to protect everyone during the COVID-19 outbreak, campus is closed until further notice and services will be delivered remotely until further notice. ADA coordinator will hold all student appointments and communication by email and phone.

To register with Disability Services

Initial meetings with ADA coordinator will be conducted by phone. To schedule an initial appointment, contact ADA coordinator, Jacinta Massey at Jmassey@nunez.edu or (504) 278-6435.

Online exams with test accommodations

As in-class instruction will now be delivered remotely, instructors will administer exams online. Students need to notify their instructors in regards to testing accommodations. Students and instructors are welcome to consult with ADA Coordinator for assistance with this process.

How to communicate with Disability Services

Contact ADA coordinator, Jacinta Massey at Jmassey@nunez.edu or (504) 278-6435 M-F 8am-5pm.