

Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute Residential Contractors Seminar

The Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute, a partnership between Louisiana Economic Development, Louisiana Community & Technical College System, and the Louisiana State Licensing Board for Contractors offers seminars and courses to small and emerging construction businesses that assist in building a solid foundation of knowledge within the construction industry.

The Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute (LCAI) Residential Contractors Seminar provides foundational technical knowledge that is essential to a residential contractor to take advantage of business opportunities within the residential construction industry.

- Ten-week course, with two-hour sessions twice a week
- Taught by industry leaders
- Offered via Zoom, a fully interactive web-based video conferencing tool
- All information and materials disseminated during the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar will be focused on residential construction.
- Residential Construction topics covered include but are not limited to:
 - Print Reading
 - Building Calculations
 - Site Work, Demolition, and Construction
 - Foundations, Formwork, and Retaining Walls
 - Interior Finishes and Exterior Finishes
 - Roofs and Roof Structures
 - Structural Loads
 - Concrete and Masonry
 - Wood Frame Construction
 - Related Trades
 - Types of Construction and Special Construction
 - Special Equipment
 - Safety Codes

ELIGIBILITY

The LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar is open to all who have the intent to start or currently have an established construction-based Louisiana business

GETTING STARTED

Register for the upcoming LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar online classes or sign up to be notified when registration opens.

NEXT STEPS

1. Register for the upcoming LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar. Contact Dan Mills at rmills@nunez.edu for a link.
 2. Attend at least 80% of the ten-week course, with two-hour sessions twice a week to qualify for course completion
-

ELIGIBILITY SCENARIOS

Q: I'm not in business yet. Can I still register for the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar?

A: Yes, if you are intent upon starting a construction-related business you are eligible to attend the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar. You do not have to be in business yet.

Q: I'm already in business and have my contractor's license. Should I register for the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar?

A: Yes, the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar can provide valuable industry information even for those who are already in business and/or already possess a contractor's license.

FAQS

Q: What type of information and materials will the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar be covering?

A: All information and materials disseminated during the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar will be focused on residential construction.

Q: What topics will the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar cover?

A: The Residential Construction topics covered include but are not limited to: print reading; building calculations; site work, demolition, and construction; foundations, formwork, and retaining walls; finishes; roof structures; structural loads; wood framing construction; related trades; special construction; and safety codes.

Q: Can I sign up and start attending the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar any time during the year?

A: No, the 10 weeks online classes are scheduled on specific dates that can be found at the LCTCS information page and registration site.

Q: Can I attend the class from home?

A: Yes, the LCAI Residential Contractors Seminar is being offered via Zoom, a web-based video conference tool that can be accessed anywhere with an internet connection.

Q: Will the instructors be present in my class?

A: Yes, the instructors and guest speakers will present their material virtually via Zoom. Students will have the opportunity to ask the instructor or guest speaker questions and receive real-time answers.